

The Coconino Sun

VOL. XVIII.

FLAGSTAFF, APRIL 20, 1901.

No. 16

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Al. Doyle went to Prescott on business Monday.

Timerhoff's poultry powder cures chicken cholera.

Henry Slosson has returned from a trip to Sacramento, Cal.

W. B. Beir, of plow fame, has been in the city during the week.

C. H. Mott, of Stockton, Cal., paid the Mountain City, a short visit.

J. B. Jones, assessor of Coconino county, was here on business this week.

Miss Eva Davis returned last Sunday from an extended visit to Colorado points.

Henry Ashurst, of Williams, was in attendance at the session of the district court this week.

The cornice on top of the cupalo of Hotel Weatherford became slightly damaged during the wind storm Tuesday night.

The Imperial Steam Laundry of Albuquerque, is represented in Flagstaff by Geo. E. Palmer. Give him your laundry.

T. Still, of Williams, who disposes of the the product of the "still," made the Weatherford his headquarters while in the city this week.

Henry Cooper's dog, Rover, who has been attending the reform school for dogs at Greenlaw's mill, has returned with a certificate of good behavior.

F. W. Volz, who supplies the poor Indian the necessities of life, at Canyon Diablo, was a guest at the Weatherford, while a member of the grand jury.

The Racket Store in order to close out entire stock of second-hand goods and Chinaware offers them at cost. Call and make your purchases before it is too late.

Dr. Robinson is the fortunate possessor of a rare quartz specimen from Bonanza creek, Alaska. It was sent him by an old college chum who struck it rich in the frozen northland.

W. Robbins, of New York City, Mrs. R. H. Passmore and Mrs. W. G. Harrison, of Minneapolis, had heard of the ancient cliff dwellings near this city, and relieved the tedium of a transcontinental trip by stopping off and viewing them.

The blizzard which has caused so much damage in Colorado and states east of the Rocky Mountains touched Flagstaff lightly. A slight snowfall Monday was accompanied with a high wind. The storm centre reached here Tuesday night and passed over early Wednesday morning leaving the atmosphere as clear and pleasant as a venetian summer day.

Chas. Canall, the well-known electrician is building a telephone line between this place and Williams with loops at Rhoades and Belmont. The line will be in operation as soon as the poles can be placed in position and wires strung. Mr. Canall possesses both a technical and practical knowledge of electricity in all of its branches second to none in the territory, and will give the four towns mentioned a first-class service.

Typewriter papers in various weights at Timerhoff's.

A. F. Polson, of Williams, has been serving as a grand juror.

Burt Maxwell, of Beaver Creek, was a visitor in town this week.

It keeps them well and makes them lay—Timerhoff's poultry powder.

The town of Williams had a full representation at the county seat this week.

Mr. Piper is having his popular resort on Railroad avenue repainted and decorated.

A west bound passenger with two engines was the unusual sight witnessed Thursday.

Edward Beal, who has been spending the winter in the southern part of the territory, has returned to Flagstaff.

Agents wanted, ladies or men, to sell gilt-edge oil stocks. Queen Oil Co., 916 Market street, San Francisco, California.

There is a noticeable improvement in all kinds of business and a prosperous year is predicted by the leading business men.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

Mr. George U. Young, of the Williams News, was a visitor in Flagstaff this week and dropped in to see THE SUN's new gasoline engine.

Dr. Robinson was in attendance on Mrs. John Swanson who last Monday gave birth to a bouncing baby boy. Both mother and baby are doing well.

T. E. Pulliam returned Wednesday night from Los Angeles, where he has been for the benefit of his health and viewing the sights of California's southern metropolis.

The sanitary condition of Flagstaff has much to do with the fact that it is the only town of any size on the line of the Santa Fe Pacific which is exempt from smallpox.

The Racket Store is the place to secure bargains in Chinaware at cost price. Nothing reserved and every article in the store is for sale. Call and get your choice and avoid the rush.

Mr. Kruger, an escaped prisoner of war from the Transval, gave a very interesting lecture at the court house on Monday night, describing the scenes in that country between the Boer and English armies.

The Junior League of the Methodist church is in a most flourishing condition, and on last Sunday enrolled four new members, if the general church will rally to the work with equal energy and enthusiasm as that displayed by the little folks, the work will certainly prosper.

Marshal Bayless disturbed the pipe dreams of two Celestials who were indulging in the Chinese luxury. He walked into their domicile while they were under the influence of the narcotic and placed them under arrest. Ball was promptly furnished and the almond-eyed disciples of confucious will undoubtedly donate a substantial amount toward the expenses of educating American children to avoid the "ways that are dark and tricks that are vain."

School supplies of all kinds at Timerhoff's.

C. W. Hays, of Williams, was a visitor in town this week.

C. C. Hull, of the Santa Fe Pacific, was a visitor in Flagstaff this week.

The Arizona Lumber and Timber Company are giving employment to all who apply at their mill.

J. A. Twitchell, of the Pittsburgh Copper Mining Company, is among the late arrivals at the Weatherford.

Fire Insurance—The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of the largest American and English companies.

Thursday and Friday were real spring days and the average citizen was inclined to hunt the shady side of the street.

The parties who burglarized the Cornish bottling works are sadly singing, "How would you like to be the beer man?"

For Rent—One hundred and fifty acres of choice farming land. A good opportunity for the right man. Apply to E. S. Gosney.

W. H. Cain, Jr., from the presidential state, Ohio, was giving our citizens some pointers on how to buy goods cheaply during the week.

For Sale—Hoosier grain drill, 6-inch hoe, in first-class condition. Price reasonable. Drill may be seen at my ranch, three miles north of town. W. H. Anderson.

Our townsman, Mr. Fulton, goes south about 100 miles to look after his band of sheep and turn them in this direction where he will bring them by easy stages for summer pasturing.

The Racket Store is closing out a choice line of Chinaware at cost price and other goods will be sold at or below cost. Remember this is an opportunity that you cannot afford to miss.

This is a Masonic secret, but if the people could see our chief, Dr. Miller, with his new silk hat on, his dignified bearing, it is a sure thing it would cause them to murmur, "who would have thought it?"

A. W. Jurdan, of Flagstaff, was in Wilcox last Monday. He is hustling up endorsements all over the territory from prominent politicians for the appointment to the office of United States marshal for Arizona.

The grand jury cleaned up the business before them in two days and adjourned. Their suggestions about the needed improvements on the court house and grounds are good and should be heeded by those in authority.

The Flagstaff Home Mission society held an interesting and well attended meeting at Mrs. Carrolls, the second since its organization. Some clothing has been received, and all such contributions are to be kept at the Bank Hotel dining room, where the next meeting will be held on May 10 at 2:30 p. m. The amount in the treasury is $17.00. Reports were made by Mesdames Treat, Jones, Keller, Greenlaw and Miss Murray, of the districts assigned them. Very earnest care was given to the one case of illness which came under the supervision of society. Mesdames Fulton, Sisson, Beal, Iles and Carroll will constitute the visiting committee for the present month.

C. F. Carson, of San Francisco, was in during the week.

A line of fine writing tablets and papreties at Timerhoff's.

The Racket Store is selling out at cost its stock of Chinaware.

F. W. Payne, of Belmont, is one of the arrivals at the Weatherford.

Among the Prescott delegation this week, were F. C. Job and G. Norris.

W. D. Jackaway, of Denver, was among the late arrivals in Flagstaff.

W. T. McAdams, from the swell wonder of the world, the Grand Canyon, is here.

Miss Martha B. Andrews and D. J. Newhall, of the Quaker City, stopped off to see the sights from a trip to the Golden Gate.

THE SUN has some inside information on the extension of the Mineral Belt railroad which it will publish in the near future.

Clarence Lucas, of the Windy City by the lake, enjoyed the encampable climate of Arizona's northern metropolis for a few days.

L. L. Lyon, representative of the Colorado Packing and Provision company, has been doing a lively business with the grocery men in pork products.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

Mr. Edward B. Webb, the genial representative of the Carpenter Paper Company, of Omaha, Nebraska, was in town Thursday in the interests of his firm.

The hose company responded quickly to a still alarm of fire, which proved to be a car load of lumber. The blaze was extinguished without the aid of the fire ladders.

Keller of Oakland, California, will fit you by mail, just order your shirts and clothing from them direct. Keller's man will visit Flagstaff about every sixty days.

The Hotel Weatherford has made an improvement by putting a stand in one of the office windows on which is a nice assortment of plants that gives the hotel a more cheerful appearance.

A freight blockade was the reason for many light engines passing through Flagstaff westward bound. The latest advices indicate that the traffic business has resumed its normal condition and the bloated bondholders of the frozen east need not be without his seedless oranges for dessert.

Tomorrow evening in the Methodist Episcopal church the pastor, Rev. J. H. Henry, will deliver a sermon especially for the benefit of the members of the lodge of F. & A. M., who will attend in a body. Good music will be rendered and a general invitation is extended to those not in attendance at the other churches.

Keller's man, Ed. B. Webster, of Oakland, Cal., came in at last and an era of clean, well fitting shirts is about to be inaugurated in the Mountain City. One of our most fastidious business men and society leaders has announced that commencing with the glad May day he will don one of Keller's yoke garments each Sabbath instead of the first of the month.